As the team had but little chance of winning the meet, with most of the point winners out on account of poor standing in school work, Manager Forsythe thought that it would be best to send only those who stand a good show of winning a point. The team, as picked, consists of Russell Joseph in the 100 and 220-yard M. T. H. S. WILL SEND A dashes. Eli Lilly in the 120-yard hurdles, Paul Weer in the high jump, George Steep of both teams was good, and especially fine fielding was done in the left field by Sapp and Tevis Saltsmarsh in the mile run, "Corfor Knox and Saltain for De Pauw.
